

ABOUT CASE HISTORY

Case history taking refers to the systematic collection of personal, developmental, medical, psychological, social, educational, occupational, and family information about an individual. It provides the essential clinical context required to make an accurate diagnosis, determine prognosis, and formulate an effective treatment plan.

HIGHLIGHT: 2-day field visit of institutional/ clinical set-up in Patna

Registration has started. Enroll Now!

<https://forms.gle/tSnSDUepTqvD2ZKR6>

PSY MENTORS
Mindfully Yours

Case History Taking

CERTIFIED PSYCHOLOGY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

 psymentors247@gmail.com

 @psymentors

 psymentors247

 +91 7209704111

 www.psymentors.com

Internship Objectives:

The internship aims to:

1. Understand the concept and importance of case history taking.
2. Develop interviewing, rapport-building, and communication skills.
3. Learn age-appropriate assessment techniques for different populations.
4. Conduct and document structured case history interviews professionally.
5. Apply ethical practices and prepare comprehensive case reports.

Importance of Case History Taking:

- Helps in diagnosis and assessment
- Assists in treatment planning
- Builds therapeutic rapport
- Provides contextual understanding
- Identifies psychosocial stressors

Course Mode: Online

Course Duration: 1 week

Course Fees: Rs. 3000

Certificates will be provided upon successful completion of the course

Types of Information Collected:

1. Identification details
2. Presenting complaints
3. History of the current problem
4. Family, educational, and occupational history
5. Medical, developmental, social, and personality history

Module Structure

Module	Topic
Module 1	Introduction to Case History
Module 2	Interview Skills and Rapport
Module 3	Adult Case History Taking
Module 4	Child Case History Taking
Module 5	Adolescent Case History Taking
Module 6	Elderly Case History Taking
Module 7	Mental Status Examination (Basic)
Module 8	Ethical Issues and Documentation
Module 9	Mock Interviews and Supervision